SEPTEMBER 2018 UPDATE

Dear Stitches,

The new season awaits and "fall mode" is definitely ON! While warm, sunny days still continue, the anticipation builds for cooler days ahead. Our friends at TAHKI YARNS sum it up like this: "As we approach the end of summer, transitional knits that can bridge the gap between seasons rise in importance. A versatile wardrobe is key during this changeable time of year, when the seasons seem to shift even within the space of one day. Garments that can pull double duty will always rise to the top of your clothing selection, which means they should climb to the top of your knitting queue as well."

It's time to discover what's new, plus find tried-and-true favorites! Our latest collection of yarns, accessories and pattern ideas help to make the summer-fall passage more manageable. Think lightweight cardigans, flowing tops, pullover shawls, and easy layering pieces like long vests -- these are garments that defy the season! They can be dressed up or down, are versatile enough for work or play, and will ward off the chills of an early fall night.

The most romantic fashion story for fall 2018 is the burgeoning boy-meets-girl trend that knitwear has kickstarted this season. Warm up to a new functional practicality -- argyle knits, patchwork, Fair Isle yokes, body-cocooning cardigans, cable knits and one-size-up menswear shapes are all updated classics that are gaining ground. Look for classic colors, traditional stitches and super-oversized fit to be in the forefront. There is an 80's vibe with colorful and bold intarsia as well. Cable knits are overloaded with texture and volume.

Tweed yarns with their tiny flecks of color are back on the scene. The color flecks add a touch of interest to any design, and offer a creative way to steal the show with a simple yet colorfully classic garment. Tweeds are perfect choices for sweaters, hats, socks, scarves and cowls -- be sure to check out HiKOO "Kenzie", a DK weight that is ideal for sophisticated style and weather versatility.

HARPER'S BAZAAR tells us: "Sometimes things that are considered 'basic' are really just awesome. Like 'sweater weather'. A little crisp, a little sunny, warm enough to skip a coat, just cool enough for some great cashmere -- this combination makes sweater weather our favorite time of year". We echo that sentiment with our latest promotion:

 GREAT NEW STUFF ***

As soon as we wake up to the first crisp fall morning, we realize that the change of seasons signals "sweater weather". That means it is time to wear (and make) sweaters! The obsession with all things woolly and cozy is well-founded for those of us who knit and crochet. We've waited all summer long to wrap ourselves in luxurious cashmere and soft alpaca once again. Sweaters, in all forms from generous cardigans to long vests to oversized pullovers, stand out beautifully on their own, plus they make great layering pieces that will keep you warm and comfortable throughout your day. We love bringing you timeless and easy fashion designs in knit and crochet. Whatever silhouette works for you, we're ready to help you greet "sweater weather" in style with these terrific project ideas...

What better season than fall to dedicate an issue to New England? Discover 18 new and crisp knits with the Fall 2018 edition of Interweave Knits ($7.99, shown upper left) -- it's chock-full of smart collegiate styles. Regardless of your region or country of origin, this issue evokes a sense of nostalgia and home as the editors go to Harvard Square to stitch away among the ivy, cobblestones, and academics. These sweaters are outstanding, timeless unisex designs handsome enough for a man and charming enough for a woman. Adventure on the Cape Cod shoreline and let cool, salty breezes kiss your face while you stay nice and warm in a woolly fisherman's sweater. There is also an excellent technical article on repairing cables. Get carried away with sweater season now -- the cables are calling!

"Baby in a Basket Hat" ($5.00), designed by Kathy Erhard, was first published in Cast On magazine in fall 2017. Few things are cuter than a baby wearing a hat. This simple baby hat will make both mom and baby happy. Designed with negative ease, the Double Basket stitch pattern is very stretchy. Ask to see our shop model worked with HiKOO "Simplicity", a machine washable wool blend that feels like butter in your hands, yet is an excellent choice for children's wear...

An all-time favorite fingering weight yarn for knitters seeking high quality, softness and durability, is now available in solids! A new go-to for solid sock yarn, ZITRON "Trekking XXL Sport" ($17.50, 100 grams, 459 yards, 75% superwash wool / 25% nylon, CYCA #2) is the same weight as "Trekking XXL", which has been highly treasured for over 20 years. This is the yarn of choice for Michelle Hunter's argyle sock project that we will be featuring during our Fall Fling weekend in early October (sorry, the workshop weekend is sold out)...

New from SCHOEPPEL is "Zauber Flower" ($36.50, 150 grams, 100% virgin wool, 656 yards CYCA #1) is a stunning 100% superwash merino wool yarn which features a long, exciting full color repeat in just one colorful extra-large cake! Perfect for heirloom-quality shawls,,,

Meet the FlexiRoll ($32.50, denim shown lower right)! This is the only needle case specifically for our super-popular ADDI® FlexiFlips! The product of a collaboration between SKACEL and DellaQ, this perfectly proportioned storage system was designed to house a full set of ADDI® FlexiFlips ($24.50 each, US 0 to US 8). Each case is constructed of high-quality canvas, and is available in either Denim or Natural. A single zippered pocket on the outside allows for the storage of an ADDI® needle gauge, gold plated scissors, or any other small notions you may want easily accessible (needles and notions not included). Securing your needles is simple, just roll one end of the pouch towards the other, and fasten with the easy-to-use twine and button closure. More new DellaQ accessories, organizers, and fabric yarn bowls are slated to arrive later this month...

 MORE GREAT NEW STUFF ***

Super-soft merino fiber and a light single-ply construction make MANOS DEL URUGUAY "Maxima" ($20.50, 100 grams, 219 yards, 100% superfine merino, CYCA #4) a cuddly yarn. With its popular worsted weight gauge and colors like fruits of the forest, larkspur and mosaic, this yarn makes wonderful accessories. Check our CHURCHMOUSE CLASSICS "First Projects" for easy knit and crochet items made from this "workhorse" basic yarn...

What is it about DRAGONFLY FIBERS that makes their yarns worthy of the title "The Colors of Happiness"? For one thing -- the colors! They are richly saturated, eye-catching hand-dyed combinations. Ask to see our new shades of "Traveller" DK weight merino wool and you will see what we mean. What will you make with the colors of happiness?

Two glorious garments, four amazing accessories -- easy to make, fun to have, and a joy to give! We are talking about our CHURCHMOUSE CLASSICS pattern launch of six new ways to fall in love with your stitching:

--- Car Coat with optional pockets ($14.50, shown page 6, lower right): "In a handsome, dense, double moss stitch, this cozy outerwear classic is a little retro, a little 'Audrey'. Three-quarter length sleeves and a folded stand-up collar give it a slightly tailored finish. Dropped shoulders and straight sleeves allow room for comfy layering. The universally flattering length brings to mind the favorite duffle or pea coat." This design uses chunky weight yarn -- we think BERROCO's "Ultra Alpaca Chunky" or PLYMOUTH YARNS "Baby Alpaca Grande" would be perfect for this handsome coat and would show off the intriguing texture of the double moss stitch.

--- Chevron Lace Wrap & Scarf ($6.50, shown page 8, upper left): "A little lace, a little lightness. This piece offers a fine fabric that's floaty but not altogether sheer -- perfect for indoor wear or 'shoulder season.' Arrow-like chevron panels in stockinette stitch and eyelet lace alternate for geometric simplicity in two generous sizes (even the scarf is 'wrappy')." Knit with lace weight yarn -- we suggest BERROCO "Ultra Alpaca Fine" for this project.

--- Funnel Neck Pullover with or without sleeves ($12.50, shown lower left): "Akin to a favorite sweatshirt but a little more refined, this boxy shape slips easily over layers or stands perfectly on its own. We love it all week long, all year 'round!" In three-quarter length sleeves or sleeveless versions, try it in HiKoo "Kenzie", a cozy blend of softness and spring, drape and luster!

--- Reversible Arm Warmers ($6.50, shown page 7, upper right): "Knit in two colors, the two layers of these soft, scrunchy cuffs are designed like the Inside Outside Cowl and can be pulled through for infinite variation -- from color tipped to color blocked to completely reversed." Pick two colors of lace weight yarn like UNIVERSAL YARNS "Whisper Lace" and give these arm warmers your personal touch!

--- Two-Point Cowl ($8.50, shown upper right): "Inspired by the ever-popular Easy Folded Poncho, this scaled-down version is totally seamless and slips easily over the shoulders. The simple shape makes it easy to re-yarn in another gauge. Just swatch for a softly draping fabric, then multiply the schematic dimensions by your stitch gauge -- the math is easy!

--- Vintage Crocheted Wrap & Scarf ($8.50, shown page 7 lower right): "We love the delicate drama of our favorite afghan stitch rendered in an ethereal lace-weight mohair. Two high-contrast colors offer geometric cool. Crocheted lengthwise, this piece has a slightly finicky start, but once you get the rhythm, you won't be able to put it down!" We suggest SCHOEPPEL WOLLE extra-large cakes "Zauber Flower" ($36.50 150 grams, 100% superwash merino wool from Patagonia, CYCA #1). You'll love the full color repeat in every colorful cake!

 SEPTEMBER KNIT ALONG ***

At DREAM IN COLOR's booth at the TNNA Market earlier this summer, we discovered a shawl project that has haunted us ever since. It's time to cast on! "All Points South" (shown left, $6.00 Ravelry Pro download), is a pullover shawl by Casapinka, who says it is "meant to drape down over your shoulders slightly. You can wear it bunched up like a cowl or more flat -- it will magically hit you just right and fold over itself/ruche up to keep you toasty." Two sizes are available and it is designed to fit everyone. It will look more like a poncho on some, more like a cowl on others depending on bust and shoulder size. It is knit top down, seamless, with a "V". There are a variety of stitches to keep it interesting and it is designed for solids, speckles, variegated or a combination of all three. Purchase three contrasting skeins of fingering weight yarn from our shelves for this project -- our new gradient "fades" of colorful DREAM IN COLOR Jilly are particularly wonderful. Join us for this fun knit every Friday in September at Kathy's Kreations from 10:00 am - 2:00 pm for this group project, the continuation of previous KALs, or any other works in progress purchased here. If you can't join us in person, follow us on the Ravelry September 2018 shop thread at "We Love Kathy's"...

 UPCOMING KNITTING CLASSES  (please call 724-238-9320 to register for all classes)

We've got a full line-up of fall classes scheduled for you. Kicking it all off is a series of informative classes with instructor Karen McCullough to help you to master colorwork knitting one panel at a time! Each month starting Tuesday, September 4, 2018, Karen will introduce you to a wonderful array of knitting techniques from Michelle Hunter's Building In Color book. We begin our project with two standards in color knitting -- intarsia and embroidery. Both open the door to an unlimited number of designs full of color, texture, and fun! By the end of the series, you'll have a gorgeous blanket. Registration fee is $10 per class plus materials. Let's make some color magic happen -- call for details!

Have you been wanting to knit your first sweater but not sure how to get started? Join instructor Karen Voshall for "My First Baby Sweater" in a series of classes on Saturdays, September 8, and September 22, 2018, from 1:00 pm - 4:00 pm all sessions. Karen tells us: "I have absolutely fallen in love with this simple knit project that results in a charming topper for the little one in your, or anyone's, life." Registration is $20 per class plus materials. Students must know how to cast on, knit and purl. This is a top-down raglan sleeve sweater with a Norwegian Fir motif, a single button closure and, best of all, no seams to finish! In this series, participants will learn the Yarn Over increase, how to read a pattern, and tips to keep you in the right place during repeats. The pattern is a Ravelry Pro download (available here, shown page 8, lower right). Please bring US size 5 knitting needles and dpns with you, or arrive a little early and shop for a new tool like ADDI "FlexiFlips". The suggested yarn is HIKOO "Simplicity" or BERROCO "Modern Cotton". You will also need stitch markers, a row counter and two stitch holders. Come join us, this will help you learn the fundamentals of top-down sweater making!

Explore "Knitting In The Round" by treating yourself to a new accessory for next winter or getting an early start on holiday gifts. This classic ribbed hat will be suitable for the men in your life or add one of Kathy's Kreations trendy new pompoms to finish your hat with feminine flair (shown lower right). Select 200 yards of one of Kathy's Kreations many beautiful worsted weight yarns and choose one of the following size 7 needle configurations: on 40" circular needle for Magic Loop, two 24" circular, one 16" circular and five double-pointed needles, or one set of ADDI® FlexiFlips. Or, bring several of these needle choices to try out the different methods. Join instructor Kathy Erhard on Saturday, September 15, 2018, from 9:00 am - 12 noon and take a look at knitting small projects without seams. Class fee is $25 which includes the pattern...

 MORE LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES ***

In our series of lace classes, students will master lace knitting one section at a time as we follow along with Michelle Hunter's Building With Lace. Join our instructor Kathy Erhard as she demonstrates lace skills and work along to make your own gorgeous lace shawl as a wearable showcase of your skills.

Our next class is scheduled for Saturday, September 15, 2018 from 1:00 pm - 4:00 pm at Kathy's Kreations, and the series will continue on October 20, 2018.

This month, Building With Lace explores the difference between "lace knitting" and "knitted lace" (class swatch, upper left). The difference lies in the fact that some lace patterns work the increases and decreases only on the right-side rows and others work these stitches on all rows. Take your lace knitting to the next level and learn how to work "knitted lace." The class has students working on various sections of the shawl, so you are welcome whether you have started your shawl or not. Class fee is $20 per session plus materials.

 OCTOBER PROGRESSIVE NEEDLES KAL ***

Don't miss out on the fun! Join Michelle Hunter on October 4, 2018, as she leads followers through the creations of the Match Play poncho. Worked in HiKOO "Sueno" (shown lower right), Match Play is an easy-to-wear poncho teeming with essential knitting skills! This poncho features high-impact textured stitches and great techniques. The mystery design's central motif features a new twist on a favorite stitch. Perhaps life changing is a strong sentiment, but you will be amazed at the improved version of this technique. Match Play has a bit more structure than some ponchos, to nudge knitters toward sweater projects. It features excellent stitch definition, and has a fabulous easy-going fit that flatters most every silhouette. The true luxury of Match Play is due to the glorious "Sueno" yarn. This merino/bamboo blend gives the fabric drape, fluidity and sheen along with excellent stitch definitions ($16.50, 100 grams, 255 yards, 80% merino superwash / 20% viscose from bamboo, CYCA #3). We have just received a large shipment of this yarn in preparation for the KAL -- be sure to stop in for yours soon -- the interest in this KAL has "Sueno" much in demand already!

 FALL 2018 COLOR TRENDS ***

Combining classicism with colorful expression, the Pantone Fashion Color Trend Report features a bold palette of autumnal hues complemented by some unexpected shades, continuing to under-score the desire for color that transcends the seasons. Colors for Fall/Winter 2018 express our need for individuality, ingenuity and creativity. Leatrice Eiseman, Executive Director of the Pantone Institute, notes: "As designers and consumers alike continue to transition away from cyclical trends, and instead focus on self-expressive colors that evade antiquated seasonal structure, we are seeing notable non-traditional choices."

PANTONE's avant-garde picks for Fall 2018 are categorized as "Autumnal hues in a modern fall palette of deep and rich tones are combined with with outbursts of colorful surprise." The colors are designed to mimic the depth of shades you see in a beautiful autumn forest -- everything from the plumage of the birds to colors so spot on that you can almost feel the crunch of the leaves in various stages on the forest floor. The global psyche is increasingly about inclusivity, so why not fall colors, too? That kind of all-are-welcome approach is central to PANTONE's Fashion Color Trend Fall 2108 Report. The top 10 list, shown upper left, plays up seasonless shades including a few that are far from wintry...

- 1) Red Pear -- a deliciously deep autumnal-inspired red whose luscious depth and richness leads the line-up; just one shade shy of maroon
- 2) Valiant Poppy -- one of the brightest of all reds with a dynamic punch, a real attention-getter; a rich jewel-tone straight off the autumnal palette, "brave and outgoing"
- 3) Nebulas Blue -- reminiscent of the lighter side of twilight, a thoughtful, starry-eyed blue stemming from the public's curiosity about all things Arctic; more brightness than navy
- 4) Ceylon Yellow -- savory and spicy yellow with an exotic touch, fabulously sophisticated when paired with other leading fall colors like Ultra Violet or Crocus Petal; "no one is ignored when wearing yellow"
- 5) Martini Olive -- understated, versatile, smooth, sophisticated neutral; has a great grounding influence when combined with the other colors in the palette like the blue, the red, or the orange
- 6) Russet Orange -- a "tough-to-miss" color used more in accents, the "forest floor" orange that is slightly more red than yellow, it is primed to take over as the bold organic du jour
- 7) Ultra Violet -- this vibrant, spiritual purple with deep blue undertones has staying power as the Color of the Year; a color of complexity and we live in complex times
- 8) Crocus Petal -- Cultivated, refined, soft, subtle and airy pastel for both genders; delicate yet energetic floral shade; subdued understudy to Ultra Violet
- 9) Limelight -- Effervescent, pungent "Pow" kind of yellow-green color; one of those colors people have fun with; a shade that becomes the center of attention
- 10) Quetzal Green -- deep, elegant blue-green suggestive of a peacock's brilliant plumage

While there is no "typical" any more and trends stay relevant longer, there remains a need for structure and foundation in everyday fashion. PANTONE has selected a classic fall palette with five core colors to serve as critical building blocks for your wardrobe. Eiseman explains, "When you move into classic colors, we know the classics don't change much. Yet we will see or expect a preponderance of certain colors. Sargasso Sea is that staple fall color. Navy is like the new black so to speak. It doesn't replace black, of course. As navy blues have gained in recent seasons, this is an acknowledgement that this is the mooring of our entire palette." The top five classics are Sargasso Sea (greenish navy), Tofu (creamy white), Almond Buff (understated baby camel), Quiet Gray and Meerkat (a toasty, burnished brown)...

 WHAT'S DRIVING FASHION TRENDS? ***

Global trend factors having an effect on current fashion this season include sustainability, conscientious consumption, the wellness movement, the continued food industry boom and ath-leisure's dominance...

 WHERE'S KATHY?" ***
